Is a bleesing vouchasfed to few. Even those who have been favored by having with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are spt to neglect the precautions secessary to preserve these precious endowments. Indeed, as a rule, the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated and built up, by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of long life, and exemptions from disease and pain, than the most ath lette of their fellows who are foolish enough to think themselves invulnarable, and act accordingly.

It is not too much to say that more than half the people of the sivilized world need an occasional tonic, to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the fast life of this restless age occasions. In fact, a pure, wholesome, unexciting tonic is the grand desideratum of the busy millions, and they have the article in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. It is a staminal medicine, i. e. it imparts permauent strength to weak systems and invigorates delicate constitutions. Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased. Competitive preparations have been introduced ad lisibum, and, as far as the public is concerned, ad nauscum, in the hope of rivaling it; but they have all either perished in the attempt, or been left far in the rear. It has been the great medical success of the present century, and it is quite certain that no propri-lary med icine in this country is as widely known, or as generally used.

Ten lightoing pre-ses, running incessant by (Sundays excepted,) the whole year through, barely supply the demand for the Illustrated Almanac, in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth, the circulation now being over eight millions a year.

But in TARRANT'S SELTZER APPERIENT, this matchless natural remedy for dyspensia, biliousness and constination. is reproduced in all the sanitary perfection of the original Spa, as freshly drawn and drank foaming at the fountain side. It requires but an instant to improvise the delicious draught, and for all the disorders of the stomach, howels, and liver, prevalent at stomach, bowels and liver, prevalent at this season it is—in the opinion of our ablest physicians—a safe and admirable

This c-lebrated medicine has won deservedly high reputation as an alleviator of pain and preserver of health. It has become a household remedy, from the fact that it gives immediate and permenent relief. It is a purely vegetable preparation, made from the best and purest materials, safe to keep and to use in every family. It is recommended by physicanas and persons of all classes, and to-day, after a public trial of thirty years—the average life of man—it stands unrivalled and unexcelled, spreading its usefulness over the wide world. Its large and increasing sale affords positive evidence of its enduring fame. We do not deem it necessary to say much in its favor as one small bottle will do more to convince you of its efficacy than all the advertisements in the world.
